ELOPEMENT AND CRIME

Wife Of Chinese Rice Planter Ran Off.

When Depression Made Him Poor She Cast Him Aside.

Now Lives With Paramour In Violation Of Laws—Widow's Inheritance Held Back.

Elopement followed by violation of both Federal and Territorial law, is charged against his wife, Ana Kaniapio, by Tui Po Apa in a libel for divorce entered at Circuit Court chambers. What makes the woman's alleged infidelity worse is the averment that it was largely caused by mercenary motives. Her husband appears to have been a prosperous Chinese rice planter who was broken in the depression of that industry. With his fortune what had passed for conjugal affection on her part also disappeared. Then, in the very year that the Edmunds Act followed the flag into these Islands, she entered upon a life violative of that law as well as of the Hawaiian laws.

Tui Po Apa states that Ana Kaniapio was married to him at Kaneohe, Oahu, on August 8, 1896, by Rev. M. Kuikahi, and they cohabited at that place about one year thereafter, last residing there in the married relation. One child, a daughter, who was named Hillel, was born about the year 1898, and is now living with her mother. The libellant goes on to allege:

"That about the said year of 1898 and shortly before the birth of said child, said respondent, without cause, deserted libellant and, in total disregard of her marriage vows and of the rights of this libellant, eloped with one Moke, with whom she has since lived, and that she is now, as libellant is informed and believes, on or near Liliha street in Honolulu, and that one child has been born of such illicit cohabitation."

Libellant, being willing to forgive the woman, earnestly entreated her to return to him, but she refused. She told him he was no longer a wealthy person and would not be able to support her, also that she had tired of him.

Repeating that his wife's desertion was wholly without cause, Tui Po Apa declares "that while it is true he lost his property on account of the fluctuations of the rice market, he immediately thereafter procured employment and has earned more than sufficient ever since that time to support both himself, his wife and the child."

While asking for a divorce, the husband leaves the matter of custody of the child to the court.

WIDOW'S PORTION WITHHELD.
Judge De Bolt has issued an order to Chew Mon, administrator of the estate of Yee Chew Fan, to show cause why he should not be ordered to deliver over to the clerk of the court the sum of $300, which Lee Shee, widow of the deceased, alleges by petition he retains in his hands contrary to the court's order of distribution.

NEW TRIAL.

Robertson & Wilder for plaintiffs give notice of motion to set for hearing the equity case of C. Bolte et al vs. C. H. Bellina et al., remitted by the Supreme Court to the Circuit Court.

PARTITION CASE.

A partition suit has been brought by Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., against Ruel Kinney and P. Helemano relative to lands in Waialua.

THE TANK.

As a striking lesson in simplicity and to show the mechanism of the Douglas supply tank, E. R. Bath has just installed an expensive and beautifully constructed glass display tank in his shop window.

The sides and front are of glass and permit a full view of the lever, valve, float and mechanical construction of the "Royal" tank.

It will be especially noticed that the simple contrivance that regulates the supply and flush, is almost impossible of getting out of order.

The inspection of the public is respectfully invited.

The tank is displayed at Bath's shop, 165 King street.

WILCOX IN THE RACE

Kalauokalani Says Home Rule Leader Would Be Sheriff.

There was a meeting yesterday of the Home Rule executive committee at which the three vacant places in the committee were filled. The new members are Curtis Iaukea, (late alleged Republican), J. W. Pipikakai and John Mana.

WILCOX FOR SHERIFF.

The latest report is that Curtis Iaukea will be the Home Rule candidate for assessor, while the old story that Wilcox is to be a candidate for sheriff is reiterated in spite of the ex-delegate's denial.

Senator Kalauokalani said yesterday that he understood that Wilcox was to be the candidate for sheriff, but the ticket had not been made up yet. He also said that Wilcox's photo had been published in a Home Rule paper with a suggestion that he be given the nomination for sheriff. He said he didn't know what Wilcox would do, but supposed he wanted to be sheriff. Kalauokalani was not very positive one way or the other.

Iaukea is said to be after the Home Rule nomination for assessor in opposition to Pratt. John D. Holt is also said to be a candidate.

KALAUOKALANI TO MAUI.

Senator Kalauokalani will leave for Maui on today's steamer. He intends to campaign the island. Speaker Beckley is to accompany him. The two will make the tour together. The Home Rule Convention on Maui is set for next week and the Home Rule president intends to be there and run things.

Kalauokalani said yesterday also that the date for the Home Rule primaries and convention had not been fixed. The dates previously given, he said, had been changed. The primaries were to have been held Monday but now they must await the Home Rule leader's return. The convention date is still more indefinite. The Home Rulers are waiting to see what the Republicans will do.

THE TEST THAT TELLS

You Can Get All the Convincing Proof You Want by Reading Honolulu Papers.

When the reader wants any article of value he naturally prefers to deal with some one he can depend upon.

If mixed up in any law suit, a good, responsible lawyer is generally the first necessity sought.

If lost on a prairie, directions from a settler could be relied upon; those from a stranger would be doubted.

The test that tells the tale of merit is the test of friends and neighbors.

Honolulu people endorse Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Can you ask for better evidence? Read this case:

Mr. James C. Stevens, of this city, informs us: "I was troubled with an ache in the small of my back for a long time, and such was the condition of things until I tried some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, which I obtained at the Hollister Drug Co's store. A short treatment gave me the desired relief, and I am satisfied that they are a good remedy for backache and deserve to be recommended."

Mr. Stevens is one of our own citizens. Is not such testimony stronger than that of someone living in the States?

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and store keepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

MEETING OF RESEARCH CLUB

The following notice of the annual meeting of the Research club has been sent out:

Honolulu, T. H., August 25, 1903.

Dear Sir: The annual meeting of the Research Club will occur next Tuesday, September 1st, at 7:30 p. m., at the residence of Rev. William Morris Kincaid, on Thurston Avenue.

W. T. Brigham will deliver the address of the evening.

You are earnestly urged to be present and to participate in the discussion of plans for next year's work, the election of officers, and such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

A WRIT OF PROHIBITION

Gear Must Quit the Holt Will Case.

Chief Justice W. F. Frear Issues Restraining Order.

Carlos Long Also Included in Order Forbidding Interference With Smith.

Chief Justice Frear yesterday issued a writ of prohibition forbidding Judge Gear from further interference with the Holt will case. Carlos A. Long is also included in the prohibitory writ.

The order was issued by Judge Frear upon the petition of Henry Smith and Bruce Cartwright who are administrator and trustee, respectively, of the will of Robert William Holt.

Judge Gear a few days ago issued an order directing Bruce Cartwright and Henry Smith to refrain from acting in the Holt estate and to deliver over all money, property, etc., held on behalf of the estate.

In the petition for a writ, it is alleged that Bruce Cartwright was appointed administrator on July 29, 1892, by the Supreme Court, and that Henry Smith was appointed trustee by Judge Stanley on June 5th, 1900. It is further set out that on July 30, 1903, upon the petition of John F. Colburn, Judge Gear appointed Carlos Long "administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of the estate of said Robert William Holt" and that Cartwright and Smith appealed from this order, and that Helen A. Holt, also filed an appeal from Judge Gear's order.

It is alleged further that, pending a decision upon appeal, Judge Gear "is without jurisdiction of the subject matter of said petition and order and is without jurisdiction to hear and determine the matters and things in said petition alleged."

It is further set out that irrespective of the pendency of the appeal, Judge Gear sitting at chambers and in probate is without jurisdiction of the subject matter of said petition and order and is without jurisdiction to hear and determine the matters and things in said petition alleged.

The writ of prohibition is signed by Chief Justice Frear and is directed to Judge Gear and Carlos A. Long. It is made returnable before the Supreme Court, Monday, October 5th.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

Newbro's Herpicide Destroys the Pesticious Cause of Annoying Dandruff.

Does your head itch? Is your coat or dress full of white flakes after dressing your hair? That's the effect of dandruff. Is your hair thinning? Are you beginning to get bald in spots? Are you already, in fact, rapidly becoming bald? If so, that is the effect of a measly little parasite that burrows in at the root of the hair and throws up the scalp in dandruff and eats off the hair at the root. Science's latest discovery is a destroyer of that pestiferous germ. That destroyer is contained in no other hair preparation on earth but Newbro's Herpicide. Try it, and be convinced. A delightful dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
